Sunday July 26 - Three powerful events on the same day!

Sun Faces Pluto at 11:55PM PDT

Sun at 4Leo17 and Pluto at 4Aquarius17Rx Moon OOB 27S14

At least three days of Plutonian intensity. What are the conditions for surrender? And are you ready to integrate the shadow, compost what is not working, and transform into strength and wellness?

Saturn stations Retrograde at 12:56PM PDT at 14Aries44Rx

At least three days of concentrated Saturn energies. Moon OOB 27S46
Add this to the Plutonian emphasis.

Lunar Nodes enter Aquarius/Leo at 6:39PM PDT Moon OOB 27S31

The nodes will not reach into the 28th degree until October 9, due to the upcoming eclipse season, starting with the August 12 total solar eclipse. Pay close attention to this 29th degree of Leo and Aquarius.

Wednesday July 29

Three more powerful events. Again, on the same day!

Venus square Mars at 12:10AM PDT

Venus at 21Virgo14 and Mars at 21Gemini14

I had not mentioned this one last week. At first you may wonder about placing this one in the underworld, as I will now do. Venus and Mars are wrapping up the final portions of their underworld saga. This day demonstrates one perfection of this pattern, on par with when they were conjunct behind the Sun in the exterior underworld back on January 7 at 18Capricorn09.

Now, Mars (1.36magnitude) is exactly 45° from the Sun in the morning sky, and Venus (-4.23magnitude) is 45° from the Sun in the evening sky. The observer from Earth will not see them together in the underworld saga. This is a 32 year pattern, and if you look up the same July dates in 1994, you see a near perfect replication. As the Venus Pisces 584-day overstory winds down, at the same time as the Mars Cancer 25-month overstory nears its end, here is where we can find out if the various lessons and teachings that these expressions of the archetypal sacred feminine and archetypal sacred masculine, have been learned, or not.

Wednesday July 29

Sun Conjunct Jupiter at 5:18AM PDT: at 6Leo24

Jupiter is behind the Sun in the exterior underworld. Is this the Jupiterian underworld? Surely this even more spotlights the Jupiter-Pluto opposition that began and framed this time-frame.

Full Moon at 7:35AM PDT

Moon at 6Aquarius30 and Sun at 6Leo30

In a rare possible respite that connects to the Upper World, I have always considered this to be the yearly Vision Quest Moon. That is something that I learned at Mt.Shasta in 1981 as part of my first Vision Quest experience. I have honored the Aquarian Full Moon in this manner ever since. Surely I advocate that, in your own way, expand your vision with this Full Moon. However you most like to connect with your future self, and align with life purpose. This Full Moon can be seen as a climax of the above events. Given the powerful presence of Saturn, Jupiter, and Mercury representing the Middle World, with strong connections to Mars, Venus, Pluto and Chiron representing the Lower World, more so than many Full Moons, don't neglect the shadows of Aquarius and Leo. Full Moons reveal the shadows of night. In two weeks is the Leo Total Solar Eclipse (with the South Node). Will you be ready?

THE CONSTELLATIONS OF STARS SHINE BRILLIANTLY IN THE NIGHT SKY.

KEYNOTE: The power of basic spiritual values which refer to man's common humanity and to all enduring archetypes.

The experience of the night sky with its multitude of stars, especially brilliant in all the countries from which astrology came, is just as basic and archetypal an experience as that of sunrise, full moon and seasonal changes. Every people on this Earth has developed the concept of constellations, probably because of a need to find order in existence and to personalize everything that could be given a permanent form. Such personalizations can be called "psychic projections," but the projection concept should be worked out both ways. If man projects his basic human nature upon the star-filled night sky, is it not just as logical to say that the universe projects its own forever-evolving patterns of order upon human nature? In either case we deal with archetypal factors which endure through a long series of generations.

This second stage symbol once more stands in perfect contrast to the preceding one. The nearly unchanging patterns of star groups are opposed to the sequence of ever-changing fashions and social ideals. The Keyword here is PERMANENCE.
